

THE BLACK WATCH OF CANADA FOUNDATION

LEGACY GIFTS FOR A LIFETIME

*More than 160 Years of Service · more than 160 Years of Legacy
A lasting contribution to the Regiment's future*

Your Legacy

For more than 160 years, Canadians have looked to The Black Watch (RHR) of Canada as a symbol of courage, leadership, and national service. Today, as we enter a new chapter in the life of the Regiment, legacy gifts ensure that future generations will stand on strong foundations.

A planned gift is more than a gesture.

It is a lasting act of loyalty, remembrance, and belief in the Regiment's future.

Our Mission

The Black Watch of Canada Foundation builds and maintains long-term support for the Regiment, its soldiers, cadets, veterans, community, and heritage.

Every year, support from generous donors strengthens:

- Professional and leadership training
- Support to soldiers on deployment
- Cadet programs shaping tomorrow's leaders
- Preservation of Highland dress, culture, and traditions
- Morale-building activities and Regimental community life
- Well-being services for soldiers and veterans, and their families
- Museum and heritage preservation

As we look to the next 160 years, legacy gifts ensure that the Regiment remains strong, relevant, and resilient—today and for generations to come.

The 2026 Legacy Campaign

A campaign for the Regiment's Future

Legacy gifts play a crucial role in advancing the strategic pillars of The Black Watch Campaign:

Regimental Readiness & Soldier Support

Strengthening programs that promote excellence, leadership, resilience, and member well-being.

Youth & Cadet Development

Expanding opportunities that prepare young Canadians for leadership, citizenship, and service.

Heritage, Armoury & Museum Renewal

Ensuring the preservation, revitalization, and accessibility of the historic Armoury, our Regimental collections and monuments.

Endowment Growth for Long-Term Stability

Legacy gifts fuel permanent capital that generates reliable income—supporting the Regiment in perpetuity.

Your legacy gift becomes part of the long-term investment that protects the Regiment's future.

What Is A Legacy Gift?

- A lasting contribution, passed from one generation to the next
- A reflection of your values, honouring your connection to the Regiment
- An investment in the enduring strength of The Black Watch of Canada

Legacy gifts offer meaningful tax advantages and allow donors to create an impact far greater than what might be possible during their lifetime.

How To Create Your Legacy

We encourage you to speak with:

- Your financial advisor or estate planner
- Your family members
- The Black Watch Foundation team

We are here to help you explore the option that best reflects your values and your connection to the Regiment. A recognition program is available

Types Of Planned Gifts

1. Bequests

Including The Black Watch of Canada Foundation in your Will is the simplest and most popular planned gift. A bequest leaves a lasting mark on future generations.

2. Gifts of Life Insurance

Transform modest annual premiums into a substantial future gift—either by transferring an existing policy or creating a new one.

3. Gifts of Securities

Donating publicly traded securities eliminates capital gains tax, offering one of the most tax-efficient ways to make a significant contribution.

4. Gifts in Kind

Certain items of historical, cultural, or operational value may be accepted and receipted according to CRA rules.

5. Charitable Gift Annuities

Receive guaranteed income for life while providing an eventual gift to the Foundation.

6. Charitable Remainder Trusts

Retain income from your assets during your lifetime while designating the remainder to the Foundation.

Your gift endures.
Your story continues.
Your legacy inspires.
